COMMUNITY PLANNING WORKSHOP

05.12.2008

Join Supervisor Dufty in celebrating the conclusion of the of the Upper Market Workshop Series and Design plan at the upcoming Community Open House.

The Upper Market Corridor was the focus of a workshop series that occurred between August and December of 2007. The planning process was meant to build upon the recommendations and implementation strategy outlined in the Market & Octavia Plan. The draft plan addresses issues such as neighborhood character, streetscape, and the public realm.

After concluding a successful workshops series, a draft plan has been created which contains the results of the recommendations put forward throughout the workshop series. These recommendations and implementation measures will be outlined at a Community Open House, where city staff and consultants will be on hand to walk residents through the draft plan and recommendations.

The draft plan is available at <http://uppermarket.sfplanning.org>.

At the Open House copies of the draft plan will be available for purchase at the set rate of printing costs.
