

What is AFTER?

- AFTER is for young people in San Francisco’s juvenile justice system who owe financial restitution.
- Young people can make amends to people harmed by crime by completing the AFTER Program.
- People harmed by crime can receive money from a community fund for court-ordered restitution owed to them.

How do I complete the AFTER Program?

- To complete the AFTER Program, you will write an essay about the impact of your actions and complete the Community Service Agreement.
- Once you complete the AFTER program, the restitution that you owe will be paid to the harmed person.
- Complete your community service hours and essay by the deadline.

Deadline: _____

Community Service Agreement

Number of Hours to be Completed: _____

Community Service Provider: _____

Your assigned Deputy Probation Officer will connect you to the Community Service Provider, so that you can complete your community service hours.

Essay

Write an essay addressing the questions below. Write your essay in this packet by hand, using pencil or black or blue ink. Please write clearly.

- How did my conduct impact the victim?
- How did my conduct impact myself?
- How would I feel if my conduct had happened to me or someone in my family?

