Jonathan Balog (Petitioner) stated that Respondent has not provided a specific provision or an exemption that explicitly prohibits disclosure of his request for properties and the broad reference to Administrative Code Chapter 41A.4, which governs registration requirements, is not a justification for withholdings. Mr. Balog further stated that short-term permits are licenses issued by the City to authorize a regulated commercial activity subject to taxation and are inherently public records because they reflect government oversight of activity. Mr. Balog stated that the City asserts that redactions are legally required to protect individual property interests but has failed to show how the property address along engages privacy in a way that justifies secrecy under the California records request.

Jonas Ionin (Respondent) stated that the Office of Short-Term Rentals redacted names and street and unit numbers as mandated by Chapter 41A.4 and provided zip codes as geographic identifiers and did not refuse access to information as permitted by law. Mr. Ionin further stated that blocks (in thousands) are not a record that they produce and it would require additional work.

Action: Moved by Member Schmidt, seconded by Member Wolfe, that the non-provision of property addresses requested by Petitioner is a violation of Administrative Code (Sunshine Ordinance), Section 67.21, and we therefore order that by the terminology of the request, the request be responded to in full, including all of the property identification requested.
