Attachments: 03-Medical-Examiner-SOTF-2018-02-26.pdf

To the Sunshine Ordinance Task Force,

I am filing a Sunshine Ordinance complaint against the San Francisco Office of the Chief Medical Examiner for failing to respond to my public records request in a timely and/or complete manner, a violation of San Francisco Administrative Code Section 67.21.

On February 26, 2018, I requested the dates, times and unique record numbers of all deaths reported to and/or filed with the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner and for which electronic records existed by doctors, paramedics and all others authorized to pronounce deaths in the City and County of San Francisco. Please find attached the USPS Certified Mail copy of my request.

As of today, March 24, 2018, I have received no communication from the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner regarding this request by telephone, email, postal mail or any other method.

By failing to respond to my public records request in a timely and/or complete manner, the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner has violated San Francisco Administrative Code (Sunshine Ordinance) Section 67.21.

Thank you for your time and efforts,

Patrick Roddie
