In their order, SOTF further requested any records from Herrera regarding written procedures for the Supervisor of Records role.

Dorsey argued the case on behalf of Herrera, and failed.

If we are talking about my complaint against Dorsey that is file 22110 already and has a separate thread. Perhaps Mr. Dahl would prefer to reply to the SOTF on that correct thread.

At first glance Sup. Dorsey's letter appears to affirm his deadline violations and thus fall under the consent procedure and we don't need any hearings.
