5. Presentations (All Items to Follow Discussion and Possible Action)

- A. Presentation on Youth Employment Initiatives in San Francisco
Presenter: Glenn Eagleson, Senior Planner & Policy Analyst, Department of Children, Youth & Their Families

Glenn Eagleson gave an overview of the City's investments in youth employment:

- There are 10-12 departments funding YWD and TAY programs (i.e. HSA, PUC, OEWD, DCYF, RPD, JPD, APD, Airport)
- There's not a common way of assessing or helping young people navigate the options for YWD programs. The youth council (WISF) used to be convened by OEWD but no longer is. That was a useful space for these discussions, but did not necessarily rise to the level of having common intakes, etc.
- Assessment of sector needs is based on which industries step up to the plate
- DCYF is announcing next five years of grants soon. Should represent investments in young adults as well.
- Invite OEWD out to hear about tech training ideas
- Talk to peer resources about youth worker (CCSF) and educator pathway ideas.

There was no public comment.
