A. Check In

Presented by Commissioner Ty

Commissioner Ty leads the committee into a check in question of if you can describe your day as a food - what food would it be?

Commissioner Ty: Chilling, melting ice cream, long day

Staff Truong: day old soggy instant ramen, sick

Commissioner Quick: hot fish pie and not in a good way

Staff Estrada: good bowl of noodles you want to eat more of it but you only want to pay for it once

Commissioner Hirji: three hour old fried chicken, it was a good day

B. Local / Community/ Legislative Updates

No legislative updates better market street passed proposal: Banning cars on SF's Market Street, once a radical idea, approved unanimously. The plan that kicked off nearly a decade ago will start construction in January, with a ban on private cars east of 10th street on the city's downtown spine. It will restrict commercial loading on the street to certain hours, extend the Muni-only lane from Third to Main Street, widen sidewalks, replace the ancient bricks with concrete pavers and add a sidewalk-level bike path with a protective curb. Crews will also build a streetcar loop east of United Nations Plaza, allowing the F line to shuttle from Embarcadero to Fisherman's Wharf.
