7. Budget and Policy Priorities (1st Reading)

- a. Presenter: Youth Commissioners

The Youth Commission reads a summary of BPP and its recommendations into the record.

Vote16

Chair Barker Plummer talks about Commissioner Alioto-Pier's BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Ye asked clarifying questions regarding teen responsibilities (including 13-year-olds) and a second question regarding adding information on the ability to encourage representation by having greater voter turnout since the U.S. has a history of under-representing marginalized communities. Chair Barker Plummer wants to look for studies/evidence of technology access points under access to resources.

Voter Registration

Commissioner Marroquin talks about her BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Dang asks for clarifications regarding American Democracy classes. Commissioner Ye is requesting visuals on stats on youth numbers feeling not prepared to vote and would be easier to ID the need. Commissioner Faagau-Noa is asking if any community organizations do work on providing this information. Chair Barker Plummer recommends looking at the BoE resolution regarding civic engagement and flushing out in-school resources.

Provide Oversight and Needed Investments in School Safety

Chair Barker Plummer talks about his BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Ye asks about information on locks. Commissioner Perez suggests adding information from the Public Safety joint hearing regarding sending home safety firearm storage information. Commissioner Dang suggests talking about and being more clear about the current SFUSD lock system. Commissioner Fong asks other SFUSD Commissioners about their experience and knowledge about the Say Something Anonymous Reporting policy.

Sexual Harassment and Sexual Assault in Schools

Commissioner Perez talks about her BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Ye suggests adding better training for both students and teachers on recognizing sexual assault and harassment. Commissioner Fong recommends restarting the Sexual Assault Safer Schools Task Force, which Commissioner Perez comments on the standstill of the legislation. Commissioner Faagau-Noa recommends adding community resources. Chair Barker Plummer emphasizes the need for more resources and asks about the California policy on conducting background checks. Why is there a recommendation on background checks? Commissioner Perez talks about the New Jersey law regarding background checks for teachers.

Chair Barker Plummer calls a recess at 7:05 pm and comes back at 7:16 pm.

Urging San Francisco to Implement Fentanyl Overdose Reduction

Commissioners Ye and Dang talk about the BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Adair asks about the resources in schools. Chair Barker Plummer emphasizes the Youth Commission's supporting harm reduction resources and hopes in the future to reduce the supply of drugs on the streets as well.

Urging the Mayor and Board of Supervisors to Improve Language Access to Support for San Francisco Residents

Vice Chair Listance talks about the BPP and the recommendations. Commissioner Adair recommends adding more information on Language Line and which departments are using it or not. Chair Barker Plummer asks about the 6000 suggested by OCEIA.
